"Shawn (One Light Creative), is a breath of fresh air. We operate a professional diversified financial investment firm who needed to have a polished clean professional look but with the ability to illustrate our firm as cutting edge with fresh approach to investment standards. Shawn saw our needs and was able to creatively make our vision come to life! For this type of quality we expected to pay an outrageous fee, so we were especially pleased with the 'bang for our buck.' Thanks Shawn!"

ABOUT US

Where did the name One Light come from?

In 1995, Shawn began a freelance business as Lighthouse Design Studio because of his affinity for what lighthouses represent—salvation. After searching many names, he finally registered the domain name 1light.com. After a number of years with the same web site name, the business name was updated to match the domain name.

Shawn Nelson has been in business as a professional graphic designer in the Dallas/Ft. Worth Metroplex since 2000 and has been offering clients a wide variety of professional graphic, web, and creative business and ministry solutions for over 15 years.

In 2005, Shawn expanded his freelance graphic design business and started One Light Creative while working out of his house. Today, Shawn works with many clients both local and national. Still in Mansfield, One Light has moved out of the home office and into an office suite, although Shawn is rarely there since he loves to work and have client meetings at the coffee shop. BTW... He is no longer bald. His daughters asked him to let it grow back, so he did.

Ministry • Shawn also has over 25 years of pastoral experience in Church Ministry - he understands the goals and strategies that make churches and para-church ministries effective. His heart for ministry gives him a unique perspective when it comes to helping churches reach a world in which imagery and marketing overwhelm our senses.
